There Are No Threatening Demonstrations Among the Strikers at Milwaukee and Cleveland.

Reed Still Indulges in the Hope That He Can Save Guiteau's Neck.

He Will Appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States and Then to the President.

A Foolish Reflection On Cyrus W. Field.

ALL QUIET.

MILWAUKEE, June 6.—The Bay View strikers are settling down into a condition of monotonous idleness. The village was very quiet to-day, and a visitor would not have suspected that 1,600 men were on a strike in the place. Here and there could be seen little knots of idlers, but their debates were dry. The questions involved in the great movement had been gone over so often that even the leading agitators did not care to warm themselves up in a discussion. The preponderance of sentiment is in favor of the strike, but there is enough of the non-union element to keep up something of a division as to the wisdom of a protracted fight. The starting of the Cleveland mills naturally tended to discourage the strikers. The union leaders, however, maintained that their organization was not only indispensable, but invincible. In matters apart from the industrial domination of the union, the individuality of the Bay View men is noteworthy. There is locally no such one-man power as has been the disgrace of British trades unions. None of the leading men here would sanction any bodily coercion. In the mixed population of English, Scotch, Welsh, Irish, and native born American artisans, it is doubtful whether even one "trading" gang could be gathered from among the striking workmen. The officers of the rolling mill were in a tranquil state of mind. They looked upon the successful starting up of business at Cleveland as proof that sufficient labor may be found for all the demands of the iron trade for a long time to come. They speak well of the Bay View men as regards their intelligence, skill, and sobriety.

NO CHANGE.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 6.—Nothing new transpired to-day to change the complexion of the iron situation. Both sides continue firm. The reported signing of the scale by the Elba Iron Works and Fing & Co., is without foundation, and manufacturers deny that there is any prospect of the scale being signed.

At the Amalgamated headquarters to-night, word was received that the Akron Iron company, of Akron, Ohio, and Canal-Dover Iron company, of Canal-Dover, Ohio, had signed the scale. This makes eight mills that have agreed to pay the advance.

To-morrow the plate mill of Klenans Superior Rail Mill will start up with 100 non-union men. They are all laborers, and this will be the first attempt in this district to run a mill with unskilled labor, and non-union men.

It is said that the mills have orders on hand that must be filled immediately, and that as soon as they are worked off, the mill will shut down again.

Deaf as a Post.

Mrs. W. J. Lang, Bethany, Ont., states that for fifteen months she was troubled with a disease in the ear, causing entire deafness. In ten months after using Thomas' Electric Oil she found relief, and in a short time she was entirely cured and hearing restored.

GEORGE D. STICKLES.

MADISON, Wis., June 6.—George D. Stickles who has for a long time been defrauding the people through the mails, and who was arrested therefore two months since, pleaded guilty before the United States Court and was fined $75.

Nearly a Miracle.

E. Asenith Hall, Binghamton, N. Y., writes: "I suffered for several months with a dull pain through my left lung and shoulders. I lost my spirits, appetite and color, and could with difficulty keep up all day. My mother procured some BURCKOCK BLOOD PURIFIER; I took them as directed, and have felt no pain since the first week after using them, and am now quite well." Price $1.00.

Sold by A. J. Roberts and Sherer & Co.

MEMORIAL HOSPITAL.

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The incorporators of the Garfield Memorial Hospital elected the following officers: "President, Justice Samuel F. Miller; Vice Presidents, Senator Windom and Justice Mac Arthur; Treasurer, James Gillilan (U. S. Treasurer); Recording Secretary, John A. Baker; Corresponding Secretary, B. G. Lovejoy. Justice Miller upon taking the chair delivered a brief address, and the meeting soon after adjourned. Prominent members of the organization speak confidently of the ultimate success of the undertaking.

LADIES WHO APPRECIATE ELEGANCE and purity are using Parker's Hair Balsam. It is the best article sold for restoring gray hair to its original color and beauty.

LINES ON FIELD.

NEW YORK, June 6.—The Herald's Tappan (N. Y.) special says the following lines were found this afternoon suspended on a pole placed on the blown-up Andre monument: "In memory of Cyrus W. Field, humanitarian and philanthropist, in whose life was exemplified the broadest, purest, and most perfect love, and about whose soul were entwined virtues the most beautiful." On the reverse side was a drawing of a scaffold with a noose hanging down. Underneath the lines was inscribed: "He is not dead, but sleepeth. First in war, first in patriotism, and first in the pockets of his countrymen."

THE ASSASSIN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6.—Mr. Reed has met with another defeat in his attempt to save Guiteau. The court en banc have denied his motion to correct the record yesterday. Mr. Reed to-day appealed to Judge Wylie, who holds the criminal court, and who did not sit with the court en banc, to make the same correction. This Judge Wylie refused to do, adding that there was no appeal to him from the court en banc, and that, besides, Mr. Reed asked him to make a new record rather than to correct the old one. Mr. Reed is not less buoyant than his client, and says to-night that he has still strong hope that he will be able to save the assassin.

Reed revisited the jail soon afterward, and made to Guiteau another report of his ill-success. The latter is reported to have received the statement coolly, to have rehearsed his old story about "God's man," and to have said that he still hoped that the man whom he made President would be the human agent to save him. Mr. Reed announces that he has still other resources, and that he shall immediately proceed to put them into operation. Guiteau can now be saved in one of two possible ways:

By an appeal to the United States Supreme Court for a writ of habeas corpus, and by a respite or pardon from the President. Mr. Reed undoubtedly will first appeal to some one of the judges of the Supreme Court on the ground of the want of jurisdiction. It was for this purpose that he had desired to have the record corrected, so that it would show affirmatively that the President died in New Jersey, and did not die in Washington, as some of the courts in the indictments allege. There is said to be reason to think that one or more of the judges of the United States Supreme Court are inclined to the opinion that the court below did not have jurisdiction. This report may not be true, and if it is true, none of the Judges may be disposed to grant a writ. Failing in every other attempt, it is to be expected that Mr. Reed will make a final appeal to the President for an absolute pardon on the ground of insanity. There seems to be no reason to think that he could succeed.

A Friend in Need.

Time over and again THOMAS' ELECTRIC OIL has proved a salutary friend to the distressed. As a regular curative for croup in children, sore throat and bronchial affections, and as a positive external remedy for pain, it is a never-failing antidote.

Unlaid.

—No frost since the morning of May 1st.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Gillies and daughter, have been visiting relatives in town. Mr. Gillies has bought land in Dakota, where he intends to remove soon.

—Walter Pierce, Dennis Murray, Lewis Franklin and Martin Keegan started for Dakota Monday. Quite a western fever is prevailing in the vicinity.

—Will King caught in a steel trap a fine specimen of badger on the farm of Mrs. E. C. Gillies, on Jug Prairie. He intends to leave it stuffed, and kept as a curiosity.

—Decorations day was observed at the cemetery by clearing away the rubbish, trimming the trees and otherwise beautifying the grounds, a work which has been badly needed and sadly neglected for several years.

—Black eyes, bruised fingers and stiff joints, the result of playing base ball, are quite common in our midst.

—J. B. Hull has just returned from western Iowa. He reports crops backward, but otherwise looking well.

—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is everywhere acknowledged to be the standard remedy for female complaints and weaknesses. It is sold by druggists.

Milton.

—The Excel Band held a strawberry, and ice cream festival at Hamilton's hall on the afternoon and evening of Decoration Day and were accorded a liberal patronage despite the rain.

—Mrs. P. Chilson, of South Cedar, Kansas arrived in town last week to visit friends.

—At the annual school meeting in this district on Monday evening it was voted to add a third department the coming year and the necessary amounts voted to pay teacher's wages, incidentals, &c., a total of nearly one thousand dollars.

—The funeral of Andrew Davis, who died on the 5th inst, took place on Tuesday. The deceased has been a cripple for many years and for the past few months of life made it his home with his brother-in-law, Deacon Brown.

—President Whitford has set out a hedge in front of his property and also in front of the College lot, which improves the appearance of the street very much. The hedge in front of the College property was a donation from him.

—The social at the residence of Mrs. Walker, last week, was a complete success. The representatives of "Ye Olden Time" were out in full force, and their costumes were true to life. We were furnished a full report of the affair, but failed to get it.

—Rev. James Bailey is quite ill at the present writing, and is confined to the house.

—Summer made its advent last Monday, and fish poles are in great demand.

—Rev. G. S. Hubbs did not have a very large number of passengers on his excursion over the Black Valley railroad, last Monday night. Temperance lectures that cost money do not draw well here.

Lima.

—What will our folks think when one of their esteemed citizens goes to Janesville on a courting expedition, comes home the next morning and falls out of an apple tree. We have a no license town here, and consequently cannot get anything stronger than hard cider, but it takes one who has been to Janesville to look for it in an apple tree.

—Water is getting to be a pretty common article in and around Lima.

—Miss Lucy Hall, of Milton, is visiting in town.

—M. A. Child, Jr., is doing a fine job of painting for Mr. E. Hull.

—Miss Fattie Wilder has been enjoying a visit from her niece.

—We are glad to learn that Mrs. H. J. Bently, who was taken quite seriously ill on last Saturday night, is recovering.

—Mr. Eugene Helms, of Kenosha, came up last week to visit his Lima relatives.

—Mr. N. Smith, Sr., has sold his farm and contemplates moving into the village.

—Mr. Joseph Kyle died at his home, in North Lima, on Thursday evening, after a short illness. He was buried at Whitewater, on Sunday.

—The village school closed last Friday for a week's vacation. The term's work, under the direction of Mr. C. B. Hull, has been thorough and eminently satisfactory to the patrons of the school, and the pupils evidently regard him very highly as an instructor.

—We have often heard of the cow that went over the moon, but never believed the story until we saw one jumping over a clothes line, carrying its owner along—last Sunday evening. Had it been any one but the Elder, some one might have heard something.

—Mr. Clark Palmer and family have been enjoying a visit from eastern relatives.

—The many friends of Mr. Alonzo Truman will be sorry to hear that his health has been failing rapidly during the past two weeks.

—"Vet," Harrington has been whistling "Sweet little face in the cradle," lately. Its a boy.

—Miss Emeline Child started, last Saturday, for an extended visit in Chicago.

—A school meeting was held at the school house, Monday evening. Mr. Fred Gould was elected treasurer in place of Mr. H. R. Charles, resigned; and Mr. Ezra Saxe, director, in place of A. Dixon, resigned. They with Mr. Wm. Truman, clerk, compose the present board.

—Mrs. P. A. Buchanan, Mr. George Saxe, and Miss Carrie Buchanan spent Decoration Day in Janesville.

—Remember that next Sunday will be Children's Day, and be sure to witness the exercises at the Methodist church.

The huge, dyspeptic, griping sickening pills are fast superseded by Dr. Pierce's "Purgative Pellets." Sold by druggists.

Emerald Grove.

—Alfred Phillips has put out eight hundred young trees, mostly maple, on his farm this spring.

—W. J. Squire has caught the Dakota fever and is now in that territory prospecting.

—Mrs. A. C. Manger and children are visiting relatives in Washington, Dakota.

—Aden Joiner has returned from his Iowa trip.

—Miss Kittie Gardner has recently been looking over Dakota.

—Some of our citizens attended the funeral of Mrs. Renel Schenck, at Shio, pierce, on Monday, June 5th. Mr. Schenck formerly lived near Emerald Grove, but removed to Iowa.

—The rain on Sunday made light congregations here and hindered our ministers from filling their afternoon appointments at Fairfield and Johnston respectively.

—J. W. Dean has been replastering a portion of his house.

—School meeting was held on Monday evening last. E. Heller was chosen director in place of A. Bradt. The same number of months school as last year was voted for both departments. Sixty dollars was voted to paint the building and for other repairs.

—Mrs. A. Bradt and children returned from a trip north on Monday.

—E. A. Hastings is still making improvements. He has just put in a fine new case of drawers in the center of the store, for boots and shoes. This will facilitate the arrangement and showing of such goods as well as being a great addition to the appearance of the store.

CHARMING features may be rendered actually repulsive by blotches or pimples. GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP remedies all complexional blemishes.

Wild Roses in Britain.

We have altogether some five true wild roses in Britain. The commonest is the dog-rose, which everybody knows well, and next comes the almost equally familiar sweet-briar, with its delicately-scented glandular leaves. The burnet-rose is the parent of our cultivated Scotch roses, and the two other native kinds are comparatively rare. Double garden roses are produced from the single five-petalled wild varieties by making the stamens (which are the organs for manufacturing pollen) turn into brightly-colored petals. There is always more or less of a tendency for stamens thus to alter their character; but in a wild state it never comes to any good, because such plants can and do die in a single generation.

Our gardeners, however, carefully select these distorted individuals, and so at length produce the large, handsome, barren flowers with which we are so familiar. The cabbage and moss roses are monstrous forms thus bred from the common wild French roses of the Mediterranean region; the China roses are cultivated abortions from an Asiatic species; and most of the other garden varieties are artificial crosses between these or various other kinds, obtained by fertilizing the seed vessels of one bush with pollen taken from the blossoms of another of a different sort.

To a botanist and eye, double flowers, however large and fine, are never really beautiful, because they lack the order and symmetry which appear so conspicuously in the fine petals, the clustered stamens and the regular stigmas of the natural form.—Belgravia.

Mozart.

A great many curious anecdotes are told of this wonderful composer. Among others related by his biographer, it is said that his charity was once appealed to in the street by an old acquaintance who had seen better days. Mozart put his hand into his pocket, but found nothing there; the discovery was embarrassing, but immediately an idea occurred to that great genius; he requested the man to wait—stepped into a coffee-room, and there instantly composed a minuet, folded up the paper and gave it to the applicant, recommending him to take it to a music-dealer in the city, who, when he saw the contents, would give him something. The man received 5 louis d'ors. It is needless to observe that the minuet is considered a masterpiece, it being the production of an artist who composed nothing but masterpieces; but it is more striking as it displays his musical originality and learning.

MOTHER DIED FROM IT.
J. W. Adams, Newark Ohio, says: "Cuticura Remedies are the greatest remedies on earth. Had the worst case of Salt Rheum in this country. My mother had it twenty years, and in fact died from it. I believe Cuticura would have saved her life. My arms, breast and head were covered for three years, which nothing relieved or cured until I used the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally, and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally."

PSORIASIS.
H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson N. Y., cured of Psoriasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing by the Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures externally). The most painful case on record. Cure verified to before a justice of the peace and prominent citizens.
All afflicted with itching and scaly diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

SALT RHEUM.
Those who have experienced the torments of

CATARRH
Sanford's Radical Cure.

A single dose instantly relieves the most violent Sneezing or Head Colds, clears the head as by magic, stops watery discharges from the nose and eyes, prevents ringing noises in the head, cures Nervous headache and subsides Chills and fevers. In Chronic Catarrh it cleanses the nasal passages of foul mucus restores the senses of smell, taste and hearing when affected. From the head, throat and bronchial tubes of offensive matter, sweetens and purifies the breath, stops the cough and arrests
the progress of catarrh towards consumption.

The Council of Ten.
The famous Council of Ten has long been the subject of the gravest historical discussion, and, as some writers suggest, its true history is probably unwritten. The view generally adopted is that here given. The Council of Ten was established about the middle of the fourteenth century, at a time when Venice was greatly disturbed. After a while there were selected from the Ten three inquisitors, in whom all the powers of the State were vested, and who formed a Court whose proceedings have been so often called in question by historians.
Their rigid despotism, says one writer, had the effect of giving a stern unity of purpose to the proceedings of Government, and doubtless contributed in some degree to consolidate the various accessions of territory which had been made into one whole. The Council is said to have been, at first, at least, more terrible to the nobility than to the commoners, doubtless from the fact that the conspiracies which were then frequent were creations of that class, and the best authorities generally hold the opinion that the Ten preserved the external dignity and independence of the Republic better than their predecessors. A notable fact is that the height of the prosperity of Venice was reached about that time, and when their despotism passed away, with it departed the greatness of the city of the waters.

The Bridegroom's "Best Man."
The custom of a bridegroom's being attended on his marriage by a friend or relative, who is styled the "best man," so practiced at weddings in the present day, is of great antiquity, descending from our Saxon ancestors. In their time the marriages were always celebrated in the house of a bridegroom. On the day before the wedding all his friends and relations, having been invited, arrived at his house and spent the time in feasting and in preparing for the approaching ceremony. Next came the bridegroom's company mounted on horseback, completely armed, who proceeded in great state and order, under the command of one who was called the foreman or foremost man, to receive and conduct the bride in safety to the house of her future husband. The bride, in her turn, was attended by her guardian and other male relatives, led by a matron, who was called the "best woman," and followed by a company of young maidens, who were called bridesmaids. The Saxon foreman of the ninth century is the prototype of the English "best man" of the nineteenth.

Bereaved but Proud.
"Has any yo' young gemmen done seen my Pete?" inquired an elderly colored lady.

"What was he, a cow?" asked one who had been disappointed about being sent to the races.

"Don' yo' trifle with my feelin's!"
said the old woman, indignantly. "Don'
none o' yo' young gemmen go leacatin' around me. I's in trouble, and I don' allow no funny business about me when I's sufferin'." Now, tole me of any o' yo' done seen my Pete?"

"What have you lost, a ferryboat?"
persisted the disappointed reporter.

"I tole yo' onest! Better took car' yo'self! When I's in mo'nin', I kim yo' a' kase 'sposed de noospaper done seen eberythin', and I's hant' in my Pete. Ef yo' ain't seen him tell it, but be careful how yo' harry my sorrer.
Watch wid, now. I's gazin'!"

"Is he your husband?" inquired another reporter.

"Bang! came the dame's umbrella over his head.

"Fa' warnin'! I done gin yo' fa'r warnin'! Ef yo' think yo' can ta'r up dis weepin' nigger's soul when she's broke down wid pinin' arter lost ones, yo' is skinnin' yo' shin on de wrong
tee."

"Maybe it was your son, madam," suggested the city editor.

"Whack! And he got it across the neck.

"Yo' can't do no monkey shines wid me, if yo' is a noospaper," panted the enraged darkey. "Just kase I'm around on funeral business, yo' can't play no roots on my sufferin'. I's talkin'! Watch out!"

"What have you lost?" queried the managing editor disturbed by the uproar.

"I done lost my Pete, and I kim down to see ef de noospaper had seen him about anywheres."

"What was Pete?" asked the editor,
cautiously.

"Pete! what was Pete! He was my hawg! Done had him sence he was a littie pig, and now he got away. Yo'
seen him?"

"No, I haven't," said the editor,
gravely; "but I am sorry for you.
None of us have seen him."

"Dat's talkin' like a gemman. No low down about dat yar. Now I go hunt my Pete wid some comfort. Lend me a chew o' snuff, and kick dem brutes that wanted to insult my lost Pete."

And the outraged dame hobbled away in search of him who was more to her than husband, son or ferryboat.—*Brook-

A Business Girl.
The women who are considering the advantage of adding to their incomes by undertaking the culture of silk, the experience of Miss Nellie Rossiter, of Philadelphia, who last year received the Pennsylvania Agricultural Society's diploma for her success in this industry, will be of interest. Miss Rossiter, who is only fourteen years old, thus describes her work: "When I first started I had about 200 worms, which I procured of a friend of my father; in a few days I shall probably possess 100,000. I have made $300 this year, and I hope to treble that sum in the next twelve months. It requires careful watching to keep the worms in good health. They require constant feeding, and somehow they always need attention at 4 o'clock in the morning. They will only eat mulberry or Cane orange leaves. I have a permit to pick those leaves in the park. When I cannot procure a sufficient amount of foliage to feed all the worms I expect to be hatched, I freeze as many thousand eggs as I cannot provide for at the time.
Eggs thus frozen will live for two months,
and on being restored to a heated room readily hatch. On the other hand, the worms die unless always in a temperature of 70 to 75 degrees. This morning I sold 10,000 eggs, fixed on a card like this (showing a card covered with little globules the size of pinheads), for $1 75.
Had I kept them for another fortnight
I could have sold the little worms for 75 cents a hundred, but then I have thousands and thousands of eggs. I have offered and have received permission to give instruction in silk-worm culture at one or two orphan asylums in the city, and as you see by the framed letters in the parlor, President Garfield, Gen.
Grant and ex-Vice President Wheeler are subscribers to the little book I have published on Silk and the Silk-Worm, in which I give all necessary information."

That official remained dumb in embarrassment. "Don't you think so, sir?" said the addressing me. "I quite agree with you," was my reply, made in sad truth.
"Of course it was," he continued. "We

Mother's! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere 25 cents a bottle. mar12adwly

A POPULAR TONIC

For Weak Lungs and Consumption. No preparation ever introduced to the American public for the relief and cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Debilitated Constitutions, Weakness of the Lungs, or Consumption in the incipient or advanced stages of the disease, has ever met with the indorsements of physicians or scientists as the celebrated "Tola, Rock and Rye." The repeated and continued sales of the article everywhere are the best evidence of its real merits. Letters and testimonials from every quarter of the country, attesting the stimulating, tonic and healing effects, are in possession of the proprietors, and can be added to convince the most skeptical reader of its intrinsic virtues. Further commendation is unnecessary and superfluous, as a trial of this article, having pleasant taste and agreeable flavor, will satisfy all those who are afflicted oroping away with the insidious weakness of the relief to be secured by the use of Tola, Rock and Rye.—Chicago Times. dec22adwly

Briefs.

—June is itself again.

—Parasols and straw hats can now take courage.

—Dr. Lobe Lusk is home from Chicago on a visit.

—Remember the concert at the First M. E. church, this evening.

—Mrs. Lord could not get the matrimonial knot untied at this term.

—It has been settled that Anna Dickinson will have a good house to hear her Hamlet.

—Mr. Frank L. Tappan, formerly of this city, and now a resident of Minneapolis, is in town on visit.

—The most delicate vegetable in the market—measured by its price—is the potato, and old ones at that.

—Miss Fannie Roberts is in the city with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Roberts, and is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lappin.

—Messrs. Edwards and Phillips, have sold a splendid span of carriage horses to persons in New York, and the animals have been already shipped.

—The Hon. James Sutherland, of this city, is vice president of the Wisconsin prohibitory amendment association, and is also one of the directors for the ensuing year.

—The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin is authority for the statement that the new brick-venered residence which Mr. A. P. Lovejoy is building in this city, will cost $12,000.

—Dr. Palmer started yesterday afternoon for St. Paul, where he will attend the American Medical Association. It is the largest association of any kind in the United States, the members present numbering 700.

—Mr. Thomas Barlass, of the town of Bradford, dedicated a large barn last night by a dance, and had an overflowing house. Some twenty couples went from Janesville. Smith's Light Guard band furnished excellent music.

—Captain H. A. Smith has received a letter from General C. S. Bentley, of Dubuque, brigadier general of the Iowa State militia, which kindly invites the Janesville Guards to enter the competitive drill at Dubuque next August.

—The Westsiders had a little sensation this morning which didn't amount to much, but still it brought out a large audience. The bone-picker's one-horse wagon ran into the hind wheels of a buggy and made a wreck of the wheel.

—It is announced that the marriage of Mr. J. I. Shea and Mrs. Carrie Fellows will take place next Thursday. Arrangements have been made by them to occupy the home of Mrs. Olive Doty, the house having been leased by Mr. Shea.

—George C. Sawyer, Esq., of Canton New York, is in the city on a brief visit with Mr. O. H. Fethers. Mr. Sawyer is a son of Judge William H. Sawyer, of the Supreme Court of New York, and is a lawyer by profession, and inherits his father's brains.

—There were some who had not made up their minds to go to hear Anna Dickinson in Hamlet, but when they read in the Gazette how her Hamlet was made to dress, they purchased reserved seats. There is a drawing power in dress, it seems, and a strong one sometimes.

—Miss Minerva Guernsey, who has been so successful in her dramatic readings in the large cities of the East during the past season, is home on a visit. She will be greeted by a large number of friends who will thoroughly congratulate her upon her wonderful success.

—If Anderson's band could be divided into half a dozen different parts and each part could play at two different places at the same time, the band would probably then be able to answer all the calls to play for dancing parties on the Fourth of July.

—The county board of supervisors adjourned at noon today, after being in session only twenty-four hours. The standing committees for the year were appointed by Chairman Metcalf, and aside from receiving several reports, there was no business of importance transacted.

—Hon. R. M. Devens, of Massachusetts, the Lord Macaulay of American writers, has produced the most popular work of this age—"American Progress." Over one hundred of our prominent citizens have examined it and given their orders. It is truly a remarkable book.

—The funeral of Mrs. Shaver took place this afternoon, at two o'clock, at the family residence on South Main street, at which the Rev. Dr. Hodge officiated. The song service of the sad occasion was rendered by Miss Etta Pond, Miss Ada Pond, Mr. Clarence Clark, and Miss Julie Wilson, accompanist.

—Mr. Seth Cushman has accepted a position in the office of the Janesville Machine company, as short hand writer to Mr. Glass, president of the company. Mr. Cushman is fast becoming a rapid and correct short hand writer, and will be found reliable and competent in his new position.

—Mr. Buchholz has just finished a lady's dog cart which is one of the finest in the city. It is made of white wood, blackwalnut and hickory, and is very handsomely finished. When such work as this can be turned out in Janesville, there is no need in going to Chicago, for that city could not put upon our streets a finer piece of work than the cart manufactured by Mr. Buchholz.

—Mr. W. G. Roberts arrived in the city last evening from Milwaukee and returned to-day, and will proceed at once to Moorhead, Minnesota, where he is engaged in publishing the News, of which he is the business manager. The News is a handsome six-column daily, and we are glad to say it is a prosperous paper. Mrs. Roberts, who has been in Janesville visiting Mrs.

Thomas Lappin, will leave for Moorhead in a day or two.

—Mr. H. C. Hadley, formerly of this city, but during the past year connected in a clerical way with the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railway, has received the appointment of traveling auditor of the Kansas City, Lawrence & Southern Kansas railway, with headquarters at Lawrence. This is a promotion which Mr. Hadley has earned since he went into the railway service in Kansas. The position is an honorable as well as one of responsibility, and the friends of Mr. Hadley in Janesville, will be glad to hear that good fortune is following him.

—Mr. S. C. Barnham, of this city, who is grand recorder of the Grand Temple of Honor of Wisconsin, gives official notice that the 9th annual session of the Grand Temple will be held at Green Bay, commencing Wednesday, June 21st, at 10 o'clock a. m. The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, Chicago & Northwestern, Wisconsin Central, Green Bay & Minnesota, Milwaukee, Lake Shore and Western, and Chicago, St. Paul, Minnesota & Omaha roads will return those paying full fare going, at 1-5 rates. Cook's hotel will entertain delegates at $2.00 per day; the American house at $1.50; the Adams house at $1.00. The members of Green Bay Temple are making all arrangements for a good time—excursion parade, etc.

BURNED DOWNS.

A Small Blaze But a Big Commotion.

An Explosion in Searching for the Scene of the Fire—How the Alarm Was Given.

This morning about nine o'clock the news of a fire was broken on the street, one report saying it was at Dr. Judd's house and another saying it was somewhere else. With no definite idea as to its location, a crowd on the East side started for the residence of Dr. S. S. Judd, expecting to find the building in flames. When the inmates of the house and the persons in the immediate neighborhood saw themselves surrounded by two or three hundred people and more coming, and the hook and ladder company in sight, they were lost in amazement, and when questioned in regard to the fire, they had heard nothing about it! It was then supposed that the fire was at or near Dr. Thor. Judd's home, and those of the crowd who were bent on chasing the fire up, started in that direction, and in time learned that it was not at Judd's house at all, but that the fire was devouring the little home of Mr. Jerry Donovan, which is located across the railway track in the Second ward. Before the engines could be put in operation, the house was beyond saving, and in a short time was completely laid in ashes.

All the household goods were saved. The building was fully insured.

The fire is said to have originated in the chimney.

There seemed to be considerable delay in giving the alarm, and when it was given on the streets, no one knew definitely anything as to its location; and in consequence of this, there was some delay in the fire department turning out, but even if it had been as prompt as usual, it could not have saved Mr. Donovan's house from the fury of the flames. But the manner in which this alarm was treated is open to some criticism. When the alarm was sent to No. 1, the engine horses were hitched to a sprinkling wagon, which was being filled at the time, and the following conversation took place:

"There is a fire."

"Where?"

"Up near Judd's house."

"Well, we can't get any water there."

"Yes you can, you have been there once before."

"Well, help me unhitch."

Then he walked to the engine house and began to cry "fire!" This is hardly the way to deal with the subject of fire when a man's house has fallen a prey to the flames.

About Bad Sidewalks.

Under the present law it behooves property owners in the city to take good care that the sidewalks on their property are in reasonably fair condition so that accidents thereon are not liable to occur. Under the old law the city was responsible for injuries sustained by a person by reason of defective sidewalks, but the law now makes the individual property holders responsible. This should wake up some in the city on whose lots there are yet some exceedingly poor walks, and on which accidents of a serious nature are liable to occur. It has become a personal matter under the new order of things, and each owner of a lot or lots on which are sidewalks, should see that they are in a condition to prevent ordinary accidents.

It is a losing investment for either the city or property owners to neglect sidewalks. The city of Janesville has paid out more money for damages and costs in litigation instituted by persons who have been injured by defective walks, than would be required to keep all the walks in the city in good repair for the next ten years. Let this matter receive prompt attention.

The I. O. O. F.

Last evening the regular meeting of the Janesville City Lodge, No. 90, took place, at which the following officers were elected for the forthcoming term:

N. G.—James A. Fathers.

V. G.—Herman Gaulke.

R. S.—B. R. Hilt.

Treasurer—R. O'Donnell.

The Weather.

REPORTED BY PRENTICE & EVENSON, DRUGGISTS.

The thermometer this morning at seven o'clock stood at 55 degrees above zero, and at one o'clock at 77 degrees above. Clear. For the corresponding time last year the thermometer stood 60 and 64 degrees above, and rained nearly all day.

WASHINGTON, June 7, 1 a. m.—The following are the indications for to-day:

Upper lake region—Slightly warmer, fair weather, light south to west winds, stationary or lower barometer.

Properly Organized.

The stockholders of the new boot factory company, met at the office of Mr. A. A. Jackson, late yesterday afternoon, to effect an organization. Mr. E. C. Smith was called to the chair, and Mr. Edward B. McKee was chosen secretary.

Five directors were chosen by ballot, the successful ones being J. A. Cunningham, Alex. Richardson, William McEloon, A. A. Jackson, and Edward B. McKee.

A committee of three was appointed to frame by-laws for the company, the committee selected being A. A. Jackson, J. A. Cunningham, and Alex. Richardson.

A committee consisting of Messrs. Richardson, Jackson, and Cunningham, was appointed to select and make arrangements for a proper site for the factory building, which will be something like 30x100 feet and three stories high.

The directors of the company met this forenoon and elected the following officers:

President—A. A. Jackson.

Vice President—William MacLellan.

Secretary—Alex. Richardson.

Treasurer—Edward B. McKee.

Superintendent—J. A. Cunningham.

After the transaction of all necessary business, the stockholders adjourned to meet again next Monday morning at the office of Mr. Jackson. The spirit with which these stockholders are taking hold of this matter shows that they will bend every energy to make the boot factory a success. The stockholders have the capital, and Mr. Cunningham has the brains and experience, and there should be no such a thing as fail.

Cannon for the Sargent Post.

It is a very sense and practical thing to do to give condemned cannon to the various posts of the Grand Army of the Republic in the United States. Congressman Williams has introduced a bill into the House of Representatives which provides that four condemned guns shall be given to the W. H. Sargent Post of this city. There is a probability, of course that the bill will become a law as the guns are of no earthly use to the government. They can be utilized in a very proper manner by being given to the posts belonging to the different divisions of the Grand Army of the Republic. The post here will be glad to hear what Mr. Williams is trying to do for them, and they will sincerely hope that the bill will become a law, and the cannons shipped to Janesville.

Congressman Guenther has also introduced a bill directing the Secretary of War to deliver one condemned gun—a twenty-four pounder—to the Berlin post.

Over the Hills &c.

On Saturday evening next the well known actors Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Miller supported by their excellent dramatic company, will appear and present their great drama entitled "Muzzle," or "Over the hills to the poor house." An exchange, in speaking of the performance,

"Over the Hills to the Poor-house," was played at the Opera house last evening to the biggest business of the season. The piece grows, as it should, steadily in favor. This and to-morrow evening will be the best two performances. Very apropos, we opened a New York exchange yesterday, and one of the first items to catch our glance was: "With wealthy relatives, well-to-do children and grandchildren, an old lady, aged over 90 years was compelled to apply and was received in to the Patterson, N. J., almshouse. The superintendent, Mr. Petry, refuses to divulge her name, but knows her family, and says that she only asks for a quiet place in which she may await death, with a little food until then. She was widowed nineteen years ago for the third time. She had a considerable property, but was persuaded to part with it long ago."

Seats can be secured at Prentice & Evenson's. Remember popular prices.

Milton Junction.

—Mr. Jasper Davis went to Chicago last week to undergo a course of treatment for his eyes. He was accompanied by Mr. George W. Post who is completing his medical course in that city.

—Mrs. S. D. Butts is spending a few days visiting friends in Evansville.

—B. C. Maxon, Wm. Squires, C. F. Lane and Wm. Littlejohn, are all watching the pigeons near Kilbourn City.

—Mr. David Cross and several others returned Saturday. The success thus far has been small but the prospect seems flattering enough to hold the hunters there still.

—Rev. Dr. Wardner returned on Friday from a flying trip to Iowa.

—Mr. Andrew Davis died on Monday morning at the residence of his brother, Jasper Davis, Esq., of this village, of consumption. The deceased has been a sufferer, and crippled for many years from rheumatism. His funeral took place at the Seventh Day Baptist church on Tuesday at 2 o'clock p. m., Elder Wardner officiating.

—Clark brothers moved into their new quarters on the Bailey farm, on Monday.

morning, for North Loupe, Nebraska, where she will spend some weeks visiting her two daughters.

—Mr. Charles Williams and wife, of Boliver, N. Y., who have been visiting his brothers here for some time past, left for home on Saturday.
